

Next stop on the ABCs tour of Wyoming's geologic wonders ...

Titcomb Basin

- View is south from the high pass on the Continental Divide separating the basin, which drains westward from Dinwoody Glacier & Dinwoody Creek
- Hosts the Titcomb Lakes in the Wind River Mountains
- Carved into Precambrian rocks by glaciers

Photo by: WSGS gems & minerals geologist Wayne Sutherland

Interpreting the past, providing for the future —

www.wsgs.wyo.gov