=FOREWARD=

Geological information of various types is often difficult to locate. The following pages identify sources of information and, wherever practical, offer names, addresses and phone numbers for easy reference.

Three primary sources of general geological information are the Geological Survey of Wyoming, the Department of Geology, and the Geology Department Library, all located in close proximity on the University of Wyoming campus in Laramie. References relating to Wyoming's physiography, structure, stratigraphy, minerals and mineral resources, petroleum and natural gas, paleontology, groundwater aquifers and geological history are on file and may be examined or checked out.

Theses and dissertations may be obtained on an Inter-Library Loan arranged through your local library and directed to Coe Library, University of Wyoming, Laramie.

Specific questions regarding geological aspects of the state may be sent to:

Wyoming Geological Survey
P.O. Box 3008, University Station
Laramie, Wyoming 82071
(307) 742-2054

Lists of Geological Survey publications are available upon request.

MECHANICAL WELL LOGS

The State maintains complete sets of electric and other logs run on wells drilled for oil and gas in Wyoming. These may be examined at the following agencies but may not be removed.

Wyoming Oil and Gas Conservation Commission
P.O. Box 2640
202 E. 2nd St.
Casper, Wyoming 82602
(307) 234-7147

Wyoming Geological Survey
P.O. Box 3008, University Station
Laramie, Wyoming 82071
(307) 742-2054

Commercial copies of logs at reduced scales are available from:

Rocky Mountain Well Log Service
P.O. Box 103
Arcade of Petroleum Building
Casper, Wyoming 82602
(307) 234-6921
or
1375 Delaware St.
Denver, Colorado 80204
(303) 825-2181
or
105 West Wall
Midland, Texas 79701
(915) 682-0591

SAMPLE LOGS

Lithologic logs are for sale through:

American Stratigraphic Company
524 East Yellowstone Highway
Casper, Wyoming 82601
(307) 237-8140
or
6280 East 39th Ave.
Denver, Colorado 80207
(303) 399-2746

WELL COMPLETION CARDS

Completion cards are maintained on all oil and related tests by the Wyoming Oil and Gas Conservation Commission. Commercial completion cards are available through Petroleum Information Corporation.

Wyoming Oil and Gas Conservation Commission
P.O. Box 2640
202 East 2nd Street, Casper, Wy. 82602

SAMPLES AND CORES

Cores have been maintained by the U.S.G.S. in Denver. For more information contact Mr. Keith Fisher, 418 Orchard St., Denver, Colorado, (303) 234-2328 or 234-4750. American Stratigraphic Company has a relatively complete set of samples (cores are less complete) from oil and gas related tests, and the material may be rented for a small fee.

American Stratigraphic Company
524 East Yellowstone Highway
Casper, Wyoming 82601
(307) 237-8140

When the need can be justified, geology logs and some samples and cores of particular sites in Wyoming are also available for examination at:

Wyoming State Highway Department
P.O. Box 1708
Cheyenne, Wyoming 82001
(307) 777-7450

U.S. Geological Survey
Water Resources Division
P.O. Box 2087
4015 Warren Avenue
Cheyenne, Wyoming 82001
(307) 778-2220

Special coring operations have also been conducted in Wyoming by the U.S. Air Force, Army Corps of Engineers, Bureau of Mines, U.S. Geological Survey, and Bureau of Land Reclamation. For information contact these agencies, or:

U.S. Bureau of Land Management
P.O. Box 1828

GEOLOGIC REPORTS

A few references index governmental, academic and professional geologic reports. The Bibliography of North American Geology was published annually by the U.S. Geological Survey through 1968. Abstracts of North American Geology was a monthly publication of the U.S.G.S. through 1971. Both can be obtained from:

Superintendent of Documents
U.S. Government Printing Office
Washington, D.C. 20402

The Bibliography and Index of Geology, published annually by the Geological Society of America, has included North American geology since 1966.

GOVERNMENTAL

State and Federal agencies publish many reports on Wyoming geology. The publication lists of both the Geological Survey of Wyoming and the U.S. Geological Survey are the primary sources of this information. Unpublished information may usually be obtained by writing or visiting the agency doing the research. Publication lists may be obtained from the following agencies:

Wyoming Geological Survey

The Bibliography and Dissertation Abstracts are available in large libraries.

PROFESSIONAL

The Wyoming Geological Association is the principal local professional society whose publications regularly include Wyoming geology. The WGA publishes a guidebook or symposium volume every year and, in addition, publishes a quarterly Earth Science Bulletin. The Rocky Mountain Association of Geologists publishes a quarterly, The Mountain Geologist.
